O'Connor was sobering up then. He handed over "the gun," and did "sneak."
Springins went home. He was very much excited. When questioned by his friends regarding his nervousness he blurted out:
"Well, if you must know, Jerry Cronin is dead. Jack O'Connor did him, and here is the gain he used to do it."
It was then a few minutes after 10.
Mr., McGran, his aunt, took the pistol. He left the house again, returning to the suche of the shooting. There he was arrested. Gourh was also taken into custodly.

COV. ABBETT'S MAJORITY. Grabb Defeated by Over 12,000-Chagrined Essex Republicans. The defeat of Gen E. Burd Grubb for New rsey's Governorship is shown by the later reuras to be more decisive than Gov. Abbett's ads had thought. The plurality for Aubett will exceed 12,000. Eleven of the twenty-one State Senators are Republicans, but the House is Democratic by to 25, giving a Democratic majority of 13 nt hallot. Bellot disappointed men in the are the Essex County Republicans, who reclusted 500 majority in that county for b. The Democrate sweat the county, ing two Senators, the Surrogate and eight e eleven mombers of the hoard of Freers, and relied up a majority of 1962 for it. The Prohibition vote fell off more than half from the figures at the last Gubernatorial election, my returns showing less than 10,000 Prohibition ballots.

A Cronin Witness Saw Him at the South Clark Street Rooms. SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD. Curcago, Nov. 7 .- It is little Kunze's turn to be ill at ease now, as the Cronin trial goes on. His shock came yesterday, and his face paled visibly when young Willie James, a stenographic student, identified Kunze as the man graphic student, identified Kunze as the man whom he saw in the apartments at 117 South Clark street, where simons put the furniture and trunk he had purchased, one afternoon late in February or early in March.

James saw the man from the window of his father's office, opposite No. 117. His attention was attracted accidentally and he saw Kunze in the room scross the street, attired only in his underclottning and washing his feet.

The other most interesting point in yesterday's testimony was that by ex-Police Capt. Wing, of Lake View, regarding the finding in the Carkou cottage of the key to the bloody trunk in which the body had been packed.

Just What Virginia Says.

[From the Nichmond Disputch.]
THE WORLD'S cablegram relative to Mahone's attempt to settle the State debt with a Lombard street banker's agent appeared in the Dispatch night, but did not dony its truth. On Saturday in Petersburg no denied it. What says THE WORLD?

This Means Quayism.

[from the Philodelphia Press—Rep.]
What Virginia needs worse perhaps than anything else is a genuine Republican party devoted to genuine Republican principles, actuated by genuine Republican impulses and led by genuine Republican leaders. When she has those she will belong to the Solid South no more forever.
